Description:

Bursa Uludag University is well known for the health infrastructure not only for students and staff but for the people in the South Mediterranean Region of Turkey.

First-level medical services for students and staff are given by the Medico-social center. Students and staff are examined and treated in this center. If more advanced examination and treatment are required, patients are directed to the Health Care Practices and Research Hospital.

Besides the regular polyclinic services, odontotherapy, psychological counseling and guidance, radiological examinations, blood tests, and urine analyses are carried out in the Medico-social Center. In addition, specialists in Neurology, Otolaryngology, Dermatology, Ophthalmology, and Obstetrics and Gynaecology meet the requirements of the students once a week.

Furthermore Bursa Uludag University has a Faculty of Medicine and Hospital (namely Health Care Practices and Research Hospital). Forty-one medical branches, with a high number of qualified academic staff, serve at this hospital to more than 6 million citizens in the region. The hospital gives policlinic services, clinical services, laboratory services, and dialysis blood center services to patients.
